

Popular Czech artist Lenka Filipov to perform in Ambler.

Czech singer-songwriter and award-winning classical guitarist Lenka Filipov will perform in concert on Wednesday, May 4, at 8 p.m. at Trinity Episcopal Church on Highland Avenue and Bethlehem Pike in Ambler. Ambler-based singer-songwriters Debra Lee...

2.6K - Apr. 26, 2011; scored 1000.0

Popular Czech artist Lenka Filipové to perform in Ambler

Published: Tuesday, April 26, 2011

View and purchase photos

Czech singer-songwriter and award-winning classical guitarist Lenka Filipová will perform in concert on Wednesday, May 4, at 8 p.m. at Trinity Episcopal Church on Highland Avenue and Bethlehem Pike in Ambler. Ambler-based singer-songwriters Debra Lee and Rick Denzien, who perform as the duo Lyra Project, will be opening.

A versatile artist, Filipová has been a major figure on the popular music scene of the Czech Republic for several decades. Her music includes classical guitar, pop songs, folk ballads and French art songs (chansons). She speaks and sings in Russian, French and English

She studied at the Prague Musical Conservatory and at the International Music Academy in Paris, and in 2008 was chosen by the world-renowned singer Celine Dion to open at her Prague concert.

She has toured throughout Europe, Japan and North America, and has won two prestigious music awards, the Angel Award and the Golden Nightingale Award (equivalent to the Grammy and the American Music Awards in the Czech Republic). She also won the Grand Prix title in the International Guitar Festival in Antil, Holland.

She will perform songs from her latest album, "The Best of Lenka Filipová," which showcases music from three decades of her Gold- and Platinum-selling albums, including 10 lyrical and four classical guitar releases.

Opening for Filipová is Lyra Project (www.lyraproject.com), with their musical guest, Michael Ronstadt, on cello. Lyra Project is an award-winning duo who blend and trade lead and vocal harmonies. Rick Denzien recently co-produced Michael Ronstadt's new CD, "Bridging the Gap," in the www.Boffo.Studio.com facility in Ambler.

The concert is sponsored by the greater Czech and Slovak community of Philadelphia and New Jersey region, where Ambler is the center of social activities, according to Czech-born Ambler resident Miroslav Oborny, president of the Czech and Slovak Heritage Association.

The concert is open to the public. Advance tickets are $25, available online at www.cskstore.com, or at the door for $30. For more information, contact Miro Oborny, 610-416-1614. Doors open at 7:30 p.m.

Info on Filipová: www.lenkaFilipove.cz; on Lyra Project: www.LyraProject.com; on Denzien: www.RickDenzien.com; on Michael Ronstadt: www.MichaelRonstadt.com.

<http://www.montgomerynews.com/articles/2011/04/26/entertainment/doc4db7332912e99349421183.txt?viewmode=fullstory>

&

Photo for Ticket by EVE M. QUATTRONE

Bucatini with Clams is one of the many attractive pasta and pizza items available on the rustic Italian menu at TreVi. Glenside's latest

Your Entry into Arts & Entertainment

TICKET

MONTGOMERY
NEWSPAPERS

April 28/29, 2011

A P R I L 2 8 / 2 9 , 2 0 1 1

Ticket 17

Popular Czech artist Lenka Filipové to perform in Ambler

Czech singer-songwriter and award-winning classical guitarist Lenka Filipové will perform in concert on Wednesday, May 4, at 8 p.m. at Trinity Episcopal Church on Highland Avenue and Bethlehem Pike in Ambler. Ambler-based singer-songwriters Debra Lee and Rick Denzien, who perform as the duo Lyra Project, will be opening.

A versatile artist, Filipové has been a major figure on the popular music scene of the Czech Republic for several decades. Her music includes classical guitar, pop songs, folk ballads and French art songs (chansons). She speaks and sings in Russian, French and English.

She studied at the Prague Musical

Conservatory and at the International Music Academy in Paris, and in 2008 was chosen by the world-renowned singer Celine Dion to open at her Prague concert.

She has toured throughout Europe, Japan and North America, and has won two prestigious music awards, the Angel Award and the Golden Nightingale Award (equivalent to the Grammy and the American Music Awards in the Czech Republic). She also won the Grand Prix title in the International Guitar Festival in Antil, Holland.

She will perform songs from her latest album, "The Best of Lenka Filipové," which showcases music from three decades of her Gold- and Platinum-selling albums, including 10 lyrical and four classical guitar releases.

Opening for Filipové is Lyra Project

(www.lyraproject.com), with their musical guest, Michael Ronstadt, on cello. Lyra Project is an award-winning duo who blend and trade lead and vocal harmonies.

Rick Denzien recently co-produced Michael Ronstadt's new CD, "Bridging the Gap," in the www.BoffoStudio.com facility in Ambler.

The concert is sponsored by the greater Czech and Slovak community of Philadelphia and New Jersey region, where Ambler is the center of social activities, according to Czech-born Ambler resident Miroslav Oborny, president of the Czech and Slovak Heritage Association.

The concert is open to the public. Advance tickets are $25, available online at www.cskstore.com, or at the door for $30. For more information, contact Miro Oborny, 610-416-1614. Doors open at 7:30 p.m.

Info on Filipové: www.lenkaFilipové.cz; on Lyra Project: www.LyraProject.com; on Denzien: www.RickDenzien.com; on Michael Ronstadt: www.MichaelRonstadt.com.